

17th November 2021

POLITICS:

-Parliament suspended after Kampala explosions.

ENERGY NEWS:

-Fuel price hike chokes traders, stirs inflation.

NATIONAL:

-We're coming for you, Museveni tells terrorists.

REGIONAL:

-Sudan's Burhan says ready to welcome ousted PM back in government.

COURT:

-Citizens want court to disband Nakalema unit.

HEALTH:

-Mulago overwhelmed by Kampala bomb attack victims.

BUSINESS:

-NOTU spitting fire over delayed NSSF Bill.

SPORTS:

-She Cranes look forward to better ranking after Africa Cup.

This review is prepared by the Eskom (U) Ltd Corporate Affairs Office. It is based on articles extracted from Uganda's newspapers. It does not necessarily reflect the opinion of Eskom Uganda Limited."

Prepared by:

The Corporate Affairs Office
Tel: +256-332-240400/401
Fax: +256-332-280306/307
Cell: +256-777-148577
+256-782-079679
+256-704194754

Email:
annitah.nanozi@eskom.co.ug
caroline.amongin@eskom.co.ug
gloria.nabirye@eskom.co.ug
<http://www.eskom.co.ug>

POLITICAL;

Parliament suspended after Kampala explosions; the deputy speaker of Parliament, Ms Anita Among has suspended Parliament and asked the legislators to remain at home. The decision comes minutes after suspected bomb explosions ripped through the city at two different locations on Tuesday morning. Story

ENERGY NEWS;

Fuel price hike chokes traders, stirs inflation; the government is scrambling for options to tame spiralling oil prices amid rising transport and food costs likely to fuel inflation in the face of approaching festive season. Story

NATIONAL;

We're coming for you, Museveni tells terrorists; President Museveni Tuesday said the terrorists have exposed themselves at a time when Uganda's security infrastructure has improved, compared to what it was in 2018 when he made the speech to Parliament. Story

REGIONAL;

Sudan's Burhan says ready to welcome ousted PM back in government; the leader of the military in Sudan Abdel Fattah al-Burhan says his new transitional government will welcome ousted Prime Minister Abdalla Hamdok should he change his mind to join. Story

COURT;

Citizens want court to disband Nakalema unit; four concerned citizens have petitioned the Constitutional Court, challenging the powers of the State House Anti-Corruption Unit headed by Col Edith Nakalema. Story

HEALTH;

Mulago overwhelmed by Kampala bomb attack victims; the casualty ward at Mulago Hospital is filled with victims of Tuesday morning blasts. Many people have cuts to their heads, arms, and stomachs. Some have broken limbs, while others are bleeding profusely. Story

BUSINESS;

NOTU spitting fire over delayed NSSF Bill; the National Organization of Trade Unions has threatened to mobilize workers countrywide to protest the delayed processing of the NSSF amendment bill. Story

SPORTS;

She Cranes look forward to better ranking after Africa Cup; the Uganda national netball team, the She Cranes have today finished second behind defending champions South Africa at the Africa Netball Championships in Windhoek, Namibia. Story

And finally; Islamic State say they carried out Kampala attack; the Islamic State group has claimed responsibility for a twin suicide bombing on Tuesday in the Ugandan capital Kampala that killed three people and left several dozen wounded, AFP reports. Story

Today's scripture; Isaiah 41:10

ESKOMorningquote; "Let us realize that: the privilege to work is a gift, the power to work is a blessing, the love of work is success!" By- David O. McKay

Visit our Facebook page; <http://www.facebook.com/EskomUgandaLtd>

Follow Us on Twitter; @Eskomug

Follow the Managing Director/CEO; @Eskom_MD