

17th November 2021

POLITICS;

-Land Bill is back.

ENERGY NEWS;

-Ugandan motorists rush to Kenya for cheaper petrol.

NATIONAL;

-Kampala attacks toll rises to four as security tightened in capital

REGIONAL;

-Kenya to pay lion's share of EAC budget in new system

COURT;

-Court blocks interdiction of five UBOS officials

EDUCATION;

-Makerere to become leading research, science institution in Africa

BUSINESS;

-Kenya delays trade mission to Uganda to resolve sugar, milk standoff.

SPORTS;

-She Cranes scoop silver at the African Netball Championship.

This review is prepared by the Eskom (U) Ltd Corporate Affairs Office. It is based on articles extracted from Uganda's newspapers. It does not necessarily reflect the opinion of Eskom Uganda Limited."

Prepared by:

The Corporate Affairs Office
Tel: +256-332-240400/401
Fax: +256-332-280306/307
Cell: +256-777-148577
+256-782-079679
+256-704194754

Email:

annitah.nanozi@eskom.co.ug
caroline.amongin@eskom.co.ug
gloria.nabirye@eskom.co.ug
<http://www.eskom.co.ug>

POLITICAL.

Land Bill is back; the long-shelved Constitutional Land Amendment Bill, which drew plenty of controversy and outrage at its first introduction in 2016, is making its way back to parliament, Sam Mayanja, the minister of state for Lands, has said. Story

ENERGY NEWS;

Ugandan motorists rush to Kenya for cheaper petrol; motorists in Busia district, eastern Uganda are now fuelling from neighbouring Kenya to circumvent the hiked fuel prices in the country. Story

NATIONAL;

Kampala attacks toll rises to four as security tightened in capital; checkpoints have been set up on several roads in Kampala, while the areas where the two bombings occurred have been closed off to motorists as teams of investigators scour the blast sites. Story

REGIONAL;

Kenya to pay lion's share of EAC budget in new system; Kenya will pay the lion share in financing of the EAC budget that will now be based on the size of a country's economy under a new hybrid system. Story

COURT;

Court blocks interdiction of five UBOS officials; the High Court in Kampala has issued an interim injunction blocking the decision to interdict five officials of the Uganda Bureau of Statics-UBOS over allegations of corruption. Story

EDUCATION;

Makerere to become leading research, science institution in Africa; the Minister of Science, Technology and Innovations, Dr Monica Musenero has revealed that the government has embarked on the process of turning Makerere University into a leading research and science institution in Africa. Story

BUSINESS;

Kenya delays trade mission to Uganda to resolve sugar, milk standoff; Kenya has postponed a trade mission to Uganda to resolve the sugar and milk import standoff until December, amid jitters on whether the two countries are ready to find a lasting solution to the impasse. Story

SPORTS;

She Cranes scoop silver at the African Netball Championship; Uganda's National Netball team, the She Cranes have scoped a silver medal at the African Netball Championship in Windhoek, Namibia. The She Cranes completed second after pulling off a draw against Malawi in their last game of the competition. Story

And finally; KACITA forms arcade security committees after Kampala bombing; KACITA has formed arcade security committees as a measure to improve vigilance and safety for traders and their customers in the aftermath of the bomb attacks in the city. Story

Today's scripture; Haggai 2:4-5

ESKOMorningquote; "Whatever your life's work is, do it well. A man should do his job so well that the living, the dead, and the unborn could do it no better."
By- Martin Luther King, Jr.

Visit our Facebook page; <http://www.facebook.com/EskomUgandaLtd>

Follow Us on Twitter; @Eskomug

Follow the Managing Director/CEO; @Eskom_MD