

16th March 2022

POLITICS;

-ULC did not advertise Nakawa-Naguru land before allocation.

ENERGY NEWS;

-Preparing for employment in Uganda's oil and gas sector.

NATIONAL;

-New pay cheques excite teachers, doctors.

COURT;

-Court dismisses November 2020 election riot case.

HEALTH;

-Covid treatment cost still high despite low infections.

BUSINESS;

-UNBS does not have capacity to protect Ugandans against fake goods.

SPORTS;

-Kukundakwe to the joy of two at para-swimming series.

WORLD NEWS;

-War in Ukraine will hurt Africa's grain supplies.

Note. "This press review is prepared by the Eskom (U) Ltd Corporate Affairs Office. It is based on articles extracted from Uganda's newspapers. It does not necessarily +y reflect the opinion of Eskom Uganda Limited."

Prepared by:

The Corporate Affairs Office
Tel: +256-332-240400/401
Fax: +256-332-280306/307
Cell: +256-782-079679
Email:
annitah.nanozi@eskom.co.ug
<http://www.eskom.co.ug>

POLITICAL;

ULC did not advertise Nakawa-Naguru land before allocation; members of Parliament on the Adhoc Committee investigating the allocation of land at the former Nakawa-Naguru housing estate have discovered that ULC did not advertise for the land before it was allocated. Story

ENERGY NEWS;

Preparing for employment in Uganda's oil and gas sector; sixteen years since commercially viable oil deposits were discovered in the Albertine Graben region, Uganda has finally set its eyes on the development phase of oil and gas, where project facilities to support the extraction of Uganda's resources will be constructed over a period of about 3 years. This phase presents immense opportunities for Ugandans looking for employment. Story

NATIONAL;

New pay cheques excite teachers, doctors; new pay raises proposed in the budget framework are stirring up excitement and receiving big endorsements from teachers, judges and medical practitioners. Story

COURT;

Court dismisses November 2020 election riot case; high court has dismissed an application by two law students from Islamic University in Uganda-IUIU challenging the excessive use of force and lethal weapons by security agencies to disperse assemblies. Story

HEALTH;

Covid treatment cost still high despite low infections; as the country registers a drastic decline in new cases of Covid-19 infections, private hospitals have said they are maintaining the previous cost of Covid-19 treatment because of high operating costs. Story

BUSINESS;

UNBS does not have capacity to protect Ugandans against fake goods; the Tourism, Trade and Industries Committee of parliament has slammed the Uganda National Bureau of Standards-UNBS for failing to protect consumers against the proliferation of fake goods on the market. Story

SPORTS;

Kukundakwe to the joy of two at para-swimming series; Husnah Kukundakwe promised to soon deliver an international medal and she is now a delightful owner of two from the March 11-13 World Para-swimming Series held in Lignano Italy. Story

WORLD NEWS;

War in Ukraine will hurt Africa's grain supplies; UN Secretary General Antonio Guterres has expressed concern that African countries could be hit with a shortage of wheat supply because of Russia's invasion of Ukraine. Story

And finally; UPDF deserter arrested for attempting to disarm police officer; a Uganda People's Defence Forces-UPDF deserter is in trouble for attempting to disarm a police officer on duty at Kabalagala police station in Kampala on Monday night. Story

Today's scripture; 1 John 5:15

ESKOMorning quote; "The meeting of preparation with opportunity generates the offspring we call luck." By- Tony Robbins

Visit our Facebook page; <http://www.facebook.com/EskomUgandaLtd>

Follow Us on Twitter; @Eskomug

Follow the Managing Director/CEO; @Eskom_MD