

21st March 2022

POLITICS:

-Speaker Oulanyah is dead.

ENERGY NEWS:

-Disaster policy will ensure oil companies pay for any spills

NATIONAL:

-Speaker Oulanyah burial programme expected on Tuesday.

REGIONAL:

-Ugandan goods still restricted despite Rwanda border re-opening.

COURT:

-Court okays petitioners of Somali origin to get citizenship.

HEALTH:

-Experts call for law to stop selling of blood.

BUSINESS:

-Cabinet endorses construction of regional industrial parks.

SPORTS:

-Nakaayi wins Uganda first ever indoors medal.

Note. "This press review is prepared by the Eskom (U) Ltd Corporate Affairs Office. It is based on articles extracted from Uganda's newspapers. It does not necessarily reflect the opinion of Eskom Uganda Limited."

Prepared by:

The Corporate Affairs Office

Tel: +256-332-240400/401

Fax: +256-332-280306/307

Cell: +256-782-079679

Email:

annitah.nanozi@eskom.co.ug

<http://www.eskom.co.ug>

POLITICAL;

Speaker Oulanyah is dead; President Yoweri Museveni has confirmed the death of Uganda's Speaker Jacob Oulanyah, who has been in hospital for over a month in Seattle, USA. Story

ENERGY NEWS;

Disaster policy will ensure oil companies pay for any spills; the government has launched the National Oil Spill Contingency Plan, a disaster preparedness and management framework, in case of an oil spillage incident in the industry. Story

NATIONAL;

Speaker Oulanyah burial programme expected on Tuesday; government has said it will issue an official statement about the burial arrangements of Speaker of Parliament Jacob Oulanyah on Tuesday. Story

REGIONAL;

Ugandan goods still restricted despite Rwanda border re-opening; most Ugandan goods are yet to get clearance to be imported into Rwanda, a month after border-reopening, our reporter has learnt. Story

COURT;

Court okays petitioners of Somali origin to get citizenship; the Civil Division of High Court in Kampala has ordered the Immigration office to give people of Somali origin citizenship if they fulfill requirements of the law. Story

HEALTH;

Experts call for law to stop selling of blood; the Uganda Blood Transfusion Service has called for enactment of a law to stop staff from public and private health facilities from selling blood to the public because it hinders blood collection. Story

BUSINESS;

Cabinet endorses construction of regional industrial parks; cabinet Ministers have endorsed the construction of an industrial park in each of the four geographical zones of Uganda that includes the Central, Eastern, Northern and Western. Story

SPORTS;

Nakaayi wins Uganda first ever Indoors medal; Halimah Nakaayi made history Sunday evening when she stormed home in third place to win Uganda has first ever medal at the World Indoor Championships. Story

And finally; Govt starts forceful evictions in Sango Bay Estate to pave way for oil palm project; government has commenced forceful eviction of people in the vast Sango Bay Estate in Kyotera District to pave the way for oil palm growing expected to start next month. Story

Today's scripture; Isaiah 43:18-19

ESKOMorning quote; "Start where you are. Use what you have. Do what you can."

By- Arthur Ashe

Visit our Facebook page; <http://www.facebook.com/EskomUgandaLtd>

Follow Us on Twitter; @Eskomug

Follow the Managing Director/CEO; @Eskom_MD