

28th March 2022

POLITICS:

-Govt defends new Speaker election.

ENERGY NEWS:

-Oil prices soar on Saudi, Russian global supply fears.

NATIONAL:

-One killed, 50 houses burnt as Turkana warriors raid Kaabong district.

REGIONAL:

-EAC in crisis once again as funding model splits partner states.

HEALTH:

-383 patients operated on in free surgical camp.

BUSINESS:

-Only reforms will help Uganda to achieve middle income.

SPORTS:

-It is all in Senegal's hands.

WORLD NEWS

-Russia, Ukraine set for face-to-face peace talks.

Note. "This press review is prepared by the Eskom (U) Ltd Corporate Affairs Office. It is based on articles extracted from Uganda's newspapers. It does not necessarily reflect the opinion of Eskom Uganda Limited."

Prepared by:

The Corporate Affairs Office
Tel: +256-332-240400/401
Fax: +256-332-280306/307
Cell: +256-782-079679
Email:
annitah.nanozi@eskom.co.ug
<http://www.eskom.co.ug>

POLITICAL;

Govt defends new Speaker election; the Attorney General, Mr Kiryowa Kiwanuka, Sunday said his legal interpretation necessitating the urgent election of a substantive Speaker of Parliament to replace deceased Jacob Oulanyah even before his burial, was right. Story

ENERGY NEWS;

Oil prices soar on Saudi, Russian global supply fears; oil prices soared Monday as a weekend attack on Saudi facilities and EU discussions on banning Russian crude raised concerns over global supplies. Story

NATIONAL;

One killed, 50 houses burnt as Turkana warriors raid Kaabong district; the unfortunate incident in Kuraao parish, Kalapata sub-county took place on Sunday morning at around 7 am. Peter Chegem, secretary of defence in Locheker village said the Turkana attacked the village, shot dead one person, and burnt 50 houses and looted several items such as saucepans, sorghum, millet, and maize harvests that people had stored in their granaries. Story

REGIONAL;

EAC in crisis once again as funding model splits partner states; the EAC Finance and Administration Committee has raised the red flag over remittance arrears amounting to $50 million, a situation that has left the Secretariat and its organs almost in limbo. Story

HEALTH;

383 patients operated on in free surgical camp; Dr. Angelo Ochieng, the medical officer in charge of Atiak health centre IV said that the patients who were of all categories were operated on and treated for conditions including fibroids, goiter, endometrial cancer, vulva mass, ovarian mass, hernia, hydatid mole, cryptorchidism, hemorrhoids, lymphoma, and keloids among others. Story

BUSINESS;

Only reforms will help Uganda to achieve middle income; the IMF has said if all necessary reforms are implemented Uganda will reach middle-income status by the 2026/27 financial year. Story

SPORTS;

It is all in Senegal's hands; Senegal coach Aliou Cisse believes his side's defeat at the hands of Egypt in the first-leg of the 2022 World Cup playoff is not an accurate reflection of the game. Story

WORLD NEWS;

Russia, Ukraine set for face-to-face peace talks; Russian and Ukrainian negotiators will resume face-to-face peace talks as soon as Monday, probing whether a near-stalemate in fighting has forced Moscow to temper its demands. Story

And finally; Gen Kayihura enrolls as advocate, prepares to enter private practice; The former IGP, Gen Kale Kayihura, has enrolled as an advocate of the High Court, four years after President Museveni brought down the curtain on his tenure as head of the Uganda Police Force. Story

Today's scripture; Proverbs 3:5

ESKOMorning quote; "Successful people are simply those with successful habits." By- Brian Tracy

Visit our Facebook page; <http://www.facebook.com/EskomUgandaLtd>

Follow Us on Twitter; @Eskomug

Follow the Managing Director/CEO; @Eskom_MD