

16th May 2022

POLITICS:

-PM Nabbanja wants no-show health workers punished.

ENERGY NEWS:

-Uganda, Tanzania loses out to French firm in crude oil pipeline.

NATIONAL:

-Parliament women association staff protest over looming dismissal.

REGIONAL:

-Somalia elects Hassan Sheikh Mohamud as president a second time.

COURT:

-UPDF soldier jailed for 35 years for murder, blames act on poor training.

HEALTH:

-Govt rolls out system to improve delivery of health services.

BUSINESS:

-Umeme, Stanbic dominate USE activity in first 2022 quarter.

SPORTS:

-NIC are East Africa club netball champs.

Note. "This press review is prepared by the Eskom (U) Ltd Corporate Affairs Office. It is based on articles extracted from Uganda's newspapers. It does not necessarily reflect the opinion of Eskom Uganda Limited."

Prepared by:

The Corporate Affairs Office
Tel: +256-332-240400/401
Fax: +256-332-280306/307
Cell: +256-782-079679
Email:
annitah.nanozi@eskom.co.ug
<http://www.eskom.co.ug>

POLITICAL;

PM Nabbanja wants no-show health workers punished; at least 44 staff of Ngoma Health Centre IV in Nakaseke District will face disciplinary action after they were absent when Prime Minister Robinah Nabbanja made an impromptu visit at the facility last week. Story

ENERGY NEWS;

Uganda, Tanzania loses out to French firm in crude oil pipeline; local firms in Uganda and Tanzania will only play the support role in providing the transport and logistics services for the construction of the Hoima-Tanga pipeline, after oil giant TotalEnergies awarded the deal to French multinational Bolloré Logistics. Story

NATIONAL;

Parliament women association staff protest over looming dismissal; staff working with the Uganda Women Parliamentary Association are living in fear over reports that the new leadership wants to terminate their contracts. Story

REGIONAL;

Somalia elects Hassan Sheikh Mohamud as president a second time; Somalia handed Hassan Sheikh Mohamud the presidency for a second time following Sunday's long-overdue election in the troubled Horn of Africa nation, which is confronting an Islamist insurgency and the threat of famine. Story

COURT;

UPDF soldier jailed for 35 years for murder, blames act on poor training; UPDF soldier who was convicted of murder has said he was inadequately trained and did not have the required knowledge and skill to perform his duties at the time of his deployment. Story

HEALTH;

Govt rolls out system to improve delivery of health services; the Ministry of Health has rolled out the health integrated continuous quality improvement database system aimed at increasing efficiency in service delivery. Story

BUSINESS;

Umeme, Stanbic dominate USE activity in first 2022 quarter; Umeme and Stanbic dominating trading at the Uganda Securities Exchange in the first quarter of 2022, contributing a combined 65.43 percent to total turnover. Story

SPORTS;

NIC are East Africa club netball champs; NIC women's team and Kampala University men's team are the champions of the East Africa Club netball championships. NIC were crowned champions Saturday after defeating KCCA 44-35 in the final played at Kamwokya Christian Community Arena. Story

And finally; Companies fault govt over loopholes in labour export; labour export companies have decried loopholes in the government management of labour export, which they say has paralysed their work. Representatives of the companies made the remarks during a conference at the Office of the President yesterday. Story

Today's scripture; Isaiah 46:4

ESKOMorning quote; "To be without hope is like being without goals, what are you working towards?" By- Catherine Pulsifer

Facebook page; <http://www.facebook.com/EskomUgandaLtd>

Follow Us on Twitter; @Eskomug

Follow the Managing Director/CEO; @Eskom_MD