

07th Jan 2019

POLITICS;

-British MPs to debate rule of law in Uganda.

ENERGY IN THE NEWS;

-Uganda to register high GDP growth amid oil delays.

NATIONAL;

-Only 80-year-olds to benefit from SAGE.

REGIONAL;

-Tense wait for election results in volatile DR Congo.

COURT;

-Prosecutors stuck with Besigye's treason case

BUSINESS;

-TZ issues permits granting sugar imports from Uganda.

SPORTS;

-Nakanyike starts 2019 with a bang.

Note, "This press review is prepared by the Eskom (U) Ltd Corporate Affairs Office. It is based on articles extracted from Uganda's newspapers. It does not necessarily +y reflect the opinion of Eskom Uganda Limited."

Prepared by:

The Corporate Affairs Office

Tel: +256-332-240400/401

Fax: +256-332-280306/307

Cell: +256-777-148577

+256-782-079679

Email:

annitah.nanozi@eskom.co.ug

caroline.amongin@eskom.co.ug

<http://www.eskom.co.ug>

POLITICAL

British MPs to debate rule of law in Uganda; Kyadondo East MP Robert Kyagulanyi, alias Bobi Wine, has been invited to a session of the UK parliament which will be discussing the declining state of democracy in Uganda tomorrow. Story

ENERGY IN THE NEWS;

Uganda to register high GDP growth amid oil delays; justice and Economic forecast by Standard Chartered Bank indicates that Uganda's economy is bound to grow at a higher rate propelled by government investment in infrastructure. This will be achieved despite delays in oil production, which in a way had been relied upon to propel rapid economic growth, especially in the private sector. Story

NATIONAL;

Only 80-year-olds to benefit from SAGE; effective July 1, only Ugandans aged 80 years and above will be included on the new list of Social Assistance Grants for Empowerment recipients. This will affect elderly persons living in 77 districts. It will not affect the 65-year-olds and above who are each currently receiving Shs 25,000 monthly in 57 districts. Story

REGIONAL;

Tense wait for election results in volatile DR Congo; a week after crucial elections to replace long-term president Joseph Kabila, the DR Congo was on tenterhooks Sunday with no date for the announcement of delayed results and just over half of ballots counted. Story

COURT;

Prosecutors stuck with Besigye's treason case; in June 2017, former four-time presidential candidate, Col Dr. Kizza Besigye, for the second time vowed never to return to Nakawa Chief Magistrate's Court to answer treason charges where he is accused of swearing-in himself as president after the contested 2016 elections. Story

BUSINESS;

TZ issues permits granting sugar imports from Uganda; faced with a 290,000 tonnes shortage, Tanzania is now issuing permits to traders to import sugar from Uganda. Last June, Tanzania stopped issuing new permits for importation of sugar to protect local producers and traders. Story

SPORTS;

Nakanyike starts 2019 with a bang; 12-year-old Maria Nakanyike couldn't have asked for a better start to her 2019. The youngster scooped silver in the just concluded African Junior Chess Championship that was played at J & M Hotel in Bwebajja along Entebbe Road. Story

And finally; Teach your children about money this holiday; parents can teach children as young as 2-3 years of age about money by turning their day to day activities into learning experiences. Trips to the ATM, supermarket and shops can be a perfect opening for a discussion about parents' values and how to use money. Story

Today's scripture; Psalms 91:3

ESKOMorning quote; "The harder you work for something, the greater you will feel when you achieve it".

Visit our Facebook page; <http://www.facebook.com/EskomUgandaLtd>

Follow Us on Twitter; @Eskomug

Follow the Managing Director/CEO; @Eskom_MD