

14th Jan 2019

POLITICS;

-Byanyima calls for unity in Opposition.

ENERGY IN THE NEWS;

-Isimba dam ready for commissioning.

NATIONAL;

-WHO orders mandatory Ebola screening at Entebbe Airport.

REGIONAL;

-Mo Ibrahim Foundation warns Sudan gov't against violent crackdown on protesters.

COURT;

-Contracts of 2 Supreme Court justices expire.

BUSINESS;

-Reducing power tariffs can only be gradual.

SPORTS;

-Otile, Baguma start US dream.

Note, "This press review is prepared by the Eskom (U) Ltd Corporate Affairs Office. It is based on articles extracted from Uganda's newspapers. It does not necessarily +y reflect the opinion of Eskom Uganda Limited."

Prepared by:

The Corporate Affairs Office
Tel: +256-332-240400/401
Fax: +256-332-280306/307
Cell: +256-777-148577
+256-782-079679

Email:
annitah.nanozi@eskom.co.ug
caroline.amongin@eskom.co.ug
<http://www.eskom.co.ug>

POLITICAL

Byanyima calls for unity in Opposition; Oxfam International Executive Director and former Mbarara Municipality MP Winnie Byanyima has called on Opposition to unite and work together for the benefit of Ugandans and the future of the nation. Story

ENERGY IN THE NEWS;

Isimba dam ready for commissioning; the Uganda Electricity Generation Company Limited, has said Isimba Hydropower Dam is set for commissioning at the end of this month. The revelation was made by Mr Simon Kasyate, the UEGCL corporate affairs. Story

NATIONAL;

WHO orders mandatory Ebola screening at Entebbe Airport; the World Health Organisation has ordered authorities at Entebbe International Airport to carry out mandatory Ebola screening of all passengers coming to Uganda through the airport. Story

REGIONAL;

Mo Ibrahim Foundation warns Sudan gov't against violent crackdown on protesters; the Mo Ibrahim Foundation has challenged the Sudan government to respect human rights and allow free press access in the ongoing political crisis that started in December last year. Story

COURT;

Contracts of 2 Supreme Court justices expire; the two-year contract for two justices of the Supreme Court will be expiring later this year. The justices are; Jotham Tumwesigye and Augustine Nshimye. The duo had officially retired in 2016 upon clocking 70 years but were later called back and given a two-year contract in a bid to fill up the then existing staffing gap. Story

BUSINESS;

Reducing power tariffs can only be gradual; Mr. Julius Wandera, the ERA head of communications, said emphasizing that it will be a gradual process and not instant. To effectively have the five US cents released, he said, demand for power has to increase massively with industries and enterprises such as schools starting to cook using electricity. Story

SPORTS;

Otile, Baguma start US dream; it pays to have great ambassadors, and Ugandan golf can stand surety to the claim. This has been more apparent in the last decade but has been more pronounced and consistent in the last two years. Story

And finally; Pregnant woman eaten by crocodile in Namayingo; tragedy befell residents of Lolwe islands, Lolwe subcounty Namayingo district when a 35-year-old pregnant woman was eaten by a crocodile as she went to fetch water along the shores of lake Victoria on Saturday, at around 6:30pm. Story

Today's scripture; Deuteronomy 28:8-13

ESKOMorning quote; "We are not here to curse the darkness, but to light the candle that can guide us thru that darkness to a safe and sane future." By- John F. Kennedy

Visit our Facebook page; <http://www.facebook.com/EskomUgandaLtd>

Follow Us on Twitter; @Eskomug

Follow the Managing Director/CEO; @Eskom_MD