

18th Jan 2019

POLITICS;

Museveni attends AU meeting on Congo poll.

ENERGY IN THE NEWS;

-Luweero residents cry foul over power outage.

NATIONAL;

-HRW report pins Uganda on torture.

REGIONAL;

-Tear gas fired as hundreds march to Sudan presidential palace.

COURT;

-Prisons ordered to produce Stella Nyanzi in court.

EDUCATION;

-Uneb registers better PLE performance.

BUSINESS;

-Rising Woman winners off to Kenya.

SPORTS;

-Kiplimo prioritizes world x-country over Doha.

Note. "This press review is prepared by the Eskom (U) Ltd Corporate Affairs Office. It is based on articles extracted from Uganda's newspapers. It does not necessarily reflect the opinion of Eskom Uganda Limited."

Prepared by:

The Corporate Affairs Office

Tel: +256-332-240400/401

Fax: +256-332-280306/307

Cell: +256-777-148577

+256-782-079679

Email:

annitah.nanozi@eskom.co.ug

caroline.amongin@eskom.co.ug

<http://www.eskom.co.ug>

POLITICAL

Museveni attends AU meeting on Congo poll; President Museveni yesterday attended the high level consultative meeting that discussed the crisis arising from the December 30 Democratic Republic of Congo presidential elections. Story

ENERGY IN THE NEWS;

Luweero residents cry foul over power outage; while the domestic power consumers count losses in destroyed household electric appliances including television sets, officials from the NWSC in Luweero on Wednesday reported loss of four power circuit breakers as a result of power outages. Story

NATIONAL;

HRW report pins Uganda on torture; government has failed to provide accountability for torture and extrajudicial killings in the country, Human Rights Watch, has said in latest report. Story

REGIONAL;

Tear gas fired as hundreds march to Sudan presidential palace; Sudanese police fired tear gas at hundreds of protesters marching towards the presidential palace in Khartoum on Thursday, as demonstrations demanding President Omar al-Bashir's resignation spread to other cities and towns. Story

COURT;

Prisons ordered to produce Stella Nyanzi in court; the Buganda Road Chief Magistrate's Court has issued a production warrant for former Makerere University researcher Dr. Stella Nyanzi who is accused of indecent communication against the President. Story

EDUCATION;

Uneb registers better PLE performance; the Uganda Examination Board has registered better performance in the 2018 Primary Leaving Examinations compared to 2017. Story

BUSINESS;

Rising Woman winners off to Kenya; ten women in business flew to Nairobi, Kenya, on Wednesday ahead of a training trip two months after they were awarded in the Rising Woman business proposal writing competition. Story

SPORTS;

Kiplimo prioritizes world x-country over Doha; Jacob Kiplimo is opining different. "Cross-country is my priority," the teenager told Daily Monitor in an earlier exchange. "I like cross-country," he emphasized. Kiplimo's choice could be fueled by his rich profile. Story

And finally; P6 girl scores aggregate 5 in PLE; she clenched her fists, jumped high and punched the air. Yeah! Yeah! That's enough for me. That was the reaction Joy Suzan Namugenyi of St Barnabas Primary School in Muyenga, Kampala, expressed when news was broken to her that she had scored aggregate 5 in the 2018 PLE. Story

Today's scripture; James 5:16

ESKOMorning quote; "Stop wearing your wishbone where your backbone ought to be." By- Elizabeth Gilbert

Visit our Facebook page; <http://www.facebook.com/EskomUgandaLtd>

Follow Us on Twitter; @Eskomug

Follow the Managing Director/CEO; @Eskom_MD