

20th Nov 2018

POLITICS;

-We won't work with police again.

ENERGY IN THE NEWS;

-South Sudan pegs economic recovery on resuming oil exports.

NATIONAL;

- Oulanyah tired of presiding over loan requests.

REGIONAL;

-Congolese militiamen kill 7 Ugandan fishermen.

COURT;

-HIV patients sue gov't over Septrin stockout.

BUSINESS;

-Mixed reactions as 0.5% mobile money tax is effected.

SPORTS;

-MTN Mbarara Run.

Note. "This press review is prepared by the Eskom (U) Ltd Corporate Affairs Office. It is based on articles extracted from Uganda's newspapers. It does not necessarily +y reflect the opinion of Eskom Uganda Limited."

Prepared by:

The Corporate Affairs Office

Tel: +256-332-240400/401

Fax: +256-332-280306/307

Cell: +256-777-148577

+256-782-079679

Email:

annitah.nanozi@eskom.co.ug

caroline.amongin@eskom.co.ug

<http://www.eskom.co.ug>

POLITICAL

We won't work with police again; the opposition Forum for Democratic Change party has said it is freezing all cooperation with Uganda Police Force because the latter have not been helpful when contacted about planned party activities. Story

ENERGY IN THE NEWS;

South Sudan pegs economic recovery on resuming oil exports; South Sudan will host its second Oil and Power Conference next week as it looks to rebuild its stunted economy following a five-year civil war that led to the shutdown of oil production. Story

NATIONAL;

Oulanyah tired of presiding over loan requests; the deputy Speaker of Parliament, Mr Jacob Oulanyah, has said he is tired of endless loan requests by the government that have caused the country sink into great debt. Story

REGIONAL;

Congolese militiamen kill 7 Ugandan fishermen; seven Ugandan fishermen have reportedly been shot dead by Congolese militiamen on the Lake Albert. Authorities say the attack happened Saturday evening near Kaiso landing site in Buseruka sub-County, Hoima District. Story

COURT;

HIV patients sue gov't over Septrin stockout; the Centre for Health Human Rights and Development has dragged government and the National Medical Stores to the High court for allegedly failing to provide Septrin drugs to people living with HIV/Aids in public health facilities for the last eight months. Story

BUSINESS;

Mixed reactions as 0.5% mobile money tax is effected; mobile money dealers and customers yesterday expressed mixed feelings following a Friday Excise Duty (Amendment) (No.2) Act, 2018 gazettelement. Publishing the Act meant effecting mobile money transactions tax to 0.5 per cent as opposed to 1 per cent that was previously charged. Story

SPORTS;

MTN Mbarara Run; the run was the third and last regional run after Mbale and Gulu and to many, it acted as a tune-up for the MTN Kampala Marathon due this weekend. Story

And finally; KCCA launches traffic control center; the Kampala Capital City Authority, executive director Jennifer Musisi has launched a pilot traffic control center in order to control traffic jam in the city. Story

Today's scripture; Joel 2:25

ESKOMorning quote; "Although no one can go back and make a brand new start, anyone can start from now and make a brand new ending." By Carl Bard

Visit our Facebook page; <http://www.facebook.com/EskomUgandaLtd>

Follow Us on Twitter; @Eskomug

Follow the Managing Director/CEO; @Eskom_MD