

08th Feb 2018

POLITICS;

-Ramaphosa promises quick end to Zuma saga.

ENERGY IN THE NEWS;

-Global mining firms sue Kenya for $3.2 billion compensation.

NATIONAL;

-Results of 4,525 candidates withheld.

EDUCATION;

-Results of 4,525 candidates withheld.

COURT;

-Kadaga orders audit on Kasaija over Shs700b.

BUSINESS;

-UNBS confiscates harmful cosmetics.

SPORTS;

-All eyes on Cheptegei in Saturday's Cross country.

Note. "This press review is prepared by the Eskom (U) Ltd Corporate Affairs Office. It is based on articles extracted from Uganda's newspapers. It does not necessarily reflect the opinion of Eskom Uganda Limited."

Prepared by:

The Corporate Affairs Office

Tel: +256-332-240400/401

Fax: +256-332-280306/307

Cell: +256-777-148577

+256-782-079679

Email:

annitah.nanozi@eskom.co.ug

caroline.amongin@eskom.co.ug

<http://www.eskom.co.ug>

POLITICS;

Ramaphosa promises quick end to Zuma saga; Mr Ramaphosa issued a statement Wednesday saying the feedback he gave the National Assembly Speaker was that the discussions with President Jacob Zuma were constructive and lay a basis for a speedy resolution of the matter. Read More

ENERGY IN THE NEWS;

Global mining firms sue Kenya for $3.2 billion compensation; trade Principal Secretary Chris Kiptoo says Kenya is actively involved in about 10 suits before a Dubai-based disputes tribunal. Read More

Uganda to get national talent register for oil jobs; speaking at a national suppliers' workshop for the Tilenga upstream project organized by Fluor and Ponticelli on Tuesday, Ali Sekatawa, PAU's director for legal and corporate affairs revealed that the register is meant to ensure that players in the oil and gas industry give priority to Ugandans for jobs. Read More

NATIONAL;

MPs angry as Gov't extends Sachet Waragi ban; the legislators argued that the wreckage was manifested in the abdication of family duties by drunkard men, with some failing to fulfill conjugal rights of their wives. Read More

EDUCATION;

Results of 4,525 candidates withheld; the results of last year's Uganda Certificate of Education exams have been released, with results of 4,525 candidates withheld. That statistic, from 112 exam centres, represents 1.4% of the candidates that sat the exams. Read More

COURT;

Kadaga orders audit on Kasaija over Shs700b; the Speaker of Parliament, Ms Rebecca Kadaga, yesterday ordered an investigation against Finance minister Matia Kasaija and Secretary to the Treasury Keith Muhakanizi for allegedly bungling Shs700b government money, and suspended any debate on the parliamentary recommendations to censure the duo over the same matter. Read More

BUSINESS;

UNBS confiscates harmful cosmetics; according to the government agency responsible for, among other things, safeguarding the public against harmful and substandard products, the confiscated items contain substances that are dangerous to the public health. Read More

SPORTS;

All eyes on Cheptegei in Saturday's Cross country; saturday will be no different as the 2017 athlete of the year is expected to be the big name attraction in the national cross country 10km race in Jinja. Read More

And finally; Kenya crackdown on media, opposition attracts heavy criticism; since any move against Mr Odinga would likely spark widespread street protests, the government focused on those around him. Read More

Today's scripture; Genesis 14:5-6

ESKOMorning quote; "we may encounter many defeats but we must not be defeated." By - Maya Angelou

Visit our Facebook page;

Follow Us on Twitter;

Follow the Managing Director/CEO;

<http://www.facebook.com/EskomUgandaLtd>

@eskomugLtd

@EskomMD