

09th April 2018

POLITICS;

-Leaders clash over wetland,

ENERGY IN THE NEWS

-Uganda nuclear project ambition gets another boost.

NATIONAL;

-Government admits failure on middle income dream.

COURT;

-Age limit case, hearing of consolidated petition begins today.

BUSINESS;

-URA moots plan to tax the rich.

SPORTS;

-Cheptegei clinches gold but doubtful for 10,000m.

AFRICAN NEWS;

-South Africa opposition leader re-elected as polls loom.

Note. "This press review is prepared by the Eskom (U) Ltd Corporate Affairs Office. It is based on articles extracted from Uganda's newspapers. It does not necessarily +y reflect the opinion of Eskom Uganda Limited."

Prepared by:

The Corporate Affairs Office
Tel: +256-332-240400/401
Fax: +256-332-280306/307
Cell: +256-777-148577
+256-782-079679

Email:

annitah.nanozi@eskom.co.ug
caroline.amongin@eskom.co.ug
<http://www.eskom.co.ug>

POLITICS;

Leaders clash over wetland; leaders in Nakasongola accuse their counterparts in Luweero of giving away large chunks of land under Nakasongola to private individuals and investment companies. Read More

ENERGY IN THE NEWS;

Uganda nuclear project ambition gets another boost; Uganda's nuclear energy ambitions have further been boosted by the visit of six experts from International Atomic Energy Agency for the onsite mission to uranium rich districts in the country. Read More

NATIONAL;

Government admits failure on middle income dream; the National Planning Authority chairman, Dr. Wilberforce Kisamba Mugerwa, has said Uganda will not achieve the coveted middle income status by 2020 because of the declining economy. Read More

COURT;

Age limit case, hearing of consolidated petition begins today; the five justices of the court will commence with submissions of the petitioners including Uganda Law Society and Kampala Lord Mayor Elias Lukwago, who represents Members of Parliament challenging the amendment. Read More

BUSINESS;

URA moots plan to tax the rich; Uganda Revenue Authority could boost its revenue collections if its plan to ensure that every Ugandan pays their tax due is effected. Read More

SPORTS;

Cheptegei clinches gold but doubtful for 10,000m; the Kapchorwa-based long distance runner captured Uganda's 50th ever medal at the Games after destroying the field to win the 5000m race on a glorious afternoon at the Carrara Stadium in Gold Coast. Read More

AFRICAN NEWS;

South Africa opposition leader re-elected as polls loom; Mmusi Maimane, the leader of South Africa's main opposition Democratic Alliance party, was re-elected on Sunday as the party kicked-off campaigning for elections due by 2019. Read More

And finally; First year Mak student drowns in university pool;* a first year student of Makerere University has drowned in the swimming pool at the university this morning. John Paul Mirimu, a student of Information Systems and a resident of Nsibirwa Hall, died on arrival at Mulago hospital. Read More

Today's scripture; Hebrews 1:1-8

ESKOMorning quote; "Victory is a child of preparation and determination."

Visit our Facebook page;

Follow Us on Twitter;

Follow the Managing Director/CEO;

<http://www.facebook.com/EskomUgandaLtd>

@eskomugltd

@EskomMD

