

29th Sept 2016

POLITICS;

-Kadaga, defeated Oulanyah fighting me but he can't win.

ENERGY IN THE NEWS;

-Parliament to probe Muloni over Karuma, Isimba dams.

NATIONAL;

-Kadaga backs Busoga artistes to perform at Independence fete.

COURT;

-Kabaziguruka refuses to plead.

-Family wants Shs 22bn pay for Karuma rock

GRAFT

-Ministry, lawyer clash over corruption in lands office.

BUSINESS;

-Groom employees on management, CEOs told.

SPORTS;

-Kampala University gain first leg advantage over Busitema.

Note. "This press review is prepared by the Eskom (U) Ltd Corporate Affairs Office. It is based on articles extracted from Uganda's newspapers. It does not necessarily +y reflect the opinion of Eskom Uganda Limited."

Prepared by:

The Corporate Affairs Office
Tel: +256-332-240400/401
Fax: +256-332-280306/307
Cell: +256-782-079679
+256-777-148577

Email:

annitah.nanozi@eskom.co.ug
caroline.amongin@eskom.co.ug
<http://www.eskom.co.ug>

POLITICS;

Kadaga, defeated Oulanyah fighting me but he can't win; Speaker of Parliament Rebecca Alitwala Kadaga has warned she will fight back if her deputy Jacob Oulanyah continues to undermine her. Read More

ENERGY IN THE NEWS;

Parliament to probe Muloni over Karuma, Isimba dams; members of Parliament yesterday resolved to form a nine-member committee to investigate minister for Energy and Minerals, Ms. Irene Muloni and the permanent secretary, Mr. Kabagambe Kaliisa, over the controversy surrounding the construction of Isimba and Karuma hydro-electricity dams. Read More

NATIONAL;

Kadaga backs Busoga artistes to perform at Independence fete; the October 9 celebrations will be held in Luuka District, Busoga sub-region, and according to Ms. Kadaga, it makes no sense to hire performers from elsewhere and leave rich talent in the area. Read More

COURT;

Kabaziguruka refuses to plead; Nakawa MP Michael Kabaziguruka on Tuesday refused to plead to charges of treachery saying he intends to appeal against the powers of the military court to try him. Read More

Family wants Shs 22bn pay for Karuma rock; a family in Kamdini, Oyam district has dragged government and contractors of Karuma dam to court for crushing a rock in their land and using it in the dam construction without their consent. Read More

GRAFT;

Ministry, lawyer clash over corruption in lands office; government has written to the World Bank and the Inspector General of Government rebuffing the evidence brought by a city lawyer on alleged fraud in the computerization of land titles. Read More

BUSINESS;

Groom employees on management, CEOs told; if you read a job advert in a newspaper today, one of the requirements will be more than two years working experience. Such a requirement locks out capable fresh graduates from a job opportunity. Read More

SPORTS;

Kampala University gain first leg advantage over Busitema; Kampala University took an important step in their bid for a second title following a 2-1 away first leg quarterfinal win over Busitema University in the Nile Special University Football League yesterday. Read More

And finally; Protests after unarmed Ugandan shot dead by US police; protesters marched on Wednesday in a California town following the fatal police shooting of an unarmed black man said to be mentally ill, as local officials urged calm and pledged a full investigation. Read More

Today's scripture; Ephesians 1:4

ESKOMorning quote; "Every day may not be good but there is something good in every day."

Visit our Facebook page;

Follow Us on Twitter;

Follow the Managing Director/CEO;

<http://www.facebook.com/EskomUgandaLtd>

@eskomugltd

@EskomMD

