

02nd Feb 2018

POLITICS;

-Museveni, Gadaffi's one Africa dream was wrong.

ENERGY IN THE NEWS;

-Fuel prices up, inflation stable.

NATIONAL;

-Petty nationalism' blamed for slow pace of regional integration.

INTERNATIONAL;

-A liquidity crisis, Cape Town now faces Day Zero.

COURT;

-Court re-instates sacked ministry of health boss.

BUSINESS;

-New Business Park creates 1,000 jobs.

SPORTS;

-Mourinho laments ridiculous start as Spurs stun United.

Note. "This press review is prepared by the Eskom (U) Ltd Corporate Affairs Office. It is based on articles extracted from Uganda's newspapers. It does not necessarily +y reflect the opinion of Eskom Uganda Limited."

Prepared by:

The Corporate Affairs Office
Tel: +256-332-240400/401
Fax: +256-332-280306/307
Cell: +256-777-148577
+256-782-079679

Email:
annitah.nanozi@eskom.co.ug
caroline.amongin@eskom.co.ug
<http://www.eskom.co.ug>

POLITICS;

Museveni, Gadaffi's one Africa dream was wrong; I did not believe in the federation of the whole of Africa that the late Muammar Gaddafi sought because the whole continent does not have sufficient compatibilities," Museveni said in a speech read on his behalf by army chief political commissar, Brigadier Henry Masiko. Read More

ENERGY IN THE NEWS;

Fuel prices up, inflation stable; despite the rise in fuel prices, all inflation dropped, the Uganda Bureau of Statistics revealed yesterday during the release of the consumer price index at Statistics House in Kampala. Read More

NATIONAL;

Petty nationalism' blamed for slow pace of regional integration; addressing the EALA committee on regional affairs and conflict resolution in Kampala today, former MP in the East African Legislative Assembly Mike Sebalu said as globalization takes centre stage for global development, there is need to create supranational sovereignty. Read More

INTERNATIONAL;

A liquidity crisis, Cape Town now faces Day Zero; the government cautions that the Day Zero threat will surpass anything a major city has faced since World War II or the September 11 attacks. Read More

COURT;

Court re-instates sacked ministry of health boss; the High Court in Kampala has ordered the Ministry of Health to re-instate the sacked acting Director of General Health Services Dr. Anthony Kabanza Mbonye. Read More

BUSINESS;

New Business Park creates 1,000 jobs; in 2015, President Museveni issued a directive on mass industrialization of the country to fight unemployment which is still high, particularly among the youth. Read More

SPORTS;

Mourinho laments ridiculous start as Spurs stun United; Jose Mourinho was left lamenting a "ridiculous goal" after one of the quickest strikes in Premier League history sent his Manchester United side on the way to a damaging 2-0 defeat by Tottenham at Wembley on Wednesday. Read More

And finally; Entebbe authorities close bar in which singer Mowzey Radio was beaten; the office of Entebbe Town clerk has ordered for immediate closure of De Bar, a hangout spot at which Ugandan musician, Moses Ssekibogo, best known as Mowzey Radio of the Goodlyfe Crew was beaten into coma leading to his death on Thursday. Read More

Today's scripture; Psalm 14:3

ESKOMorning quote; "failure will never overtake me if my determination to succeed is strong enough." By – OG. Mandino

Visit our Facebook page;

Follow Us on Twitter;

Follow the Managing Director/CEO;

<http://www.facebook.com/EskomUgandaLtd>

@eskomugld

@EskomMD