

02nd Aug 2021

POLITICS:

-PostBank seeks to recover Shs242m wrongfully sent to Covid relief beneficiaries.

ENERGY NEWS:

-Ugandans should exploit unfolding opportunities in the energy sector.

NATIONAL:

-Health, Finance clash over Shs9b tax on Covid-19 pick-up trucks.

REGIONAL:

-Uganda, Tanzania jointly enforcing border COVID-19 directives.

COURT:

-Court fixes dates to decide on two vehicle tracking cases against govt.

BUSINESS:

-Arcades, Kikuubo to take time before being re-opened.

SPORTS:

-Uganda's Chemutai into Wednesday's 3000m Steeplechase final.

Note. "This press review is prepared by the Eskom (U) Ltd Corporate Affairs Office. It is based on articles extracted from Uganda's newspapers. It does not necessarily +y reflect the opinion of Eskom Uganda Limited."

Prepared by:

The Corporate Affairs Office
Tel: +256-332-240400/401
Fax: +256-332-280306/307
Cell: +256-777-148577
+256-782-079679

Email:

annitah.nanozi@eskom.co.ug
caroline.amongin@eskom.co.ug gloria.nabirye@eskom.co.ug
<http://www.eskom.co.ug>

POLITICAL;

PostBank seeks to recover Shs242m wrongfully sent to Covid relief beneficiaries; Postbank has said it is in the process recovering at least Shs242.2m that was wrongfully sent to beneficiaries of the Covid Relief Fund. Story

ENERGY NEWS;

Ugandans should exploit unfolding opportunities in the energy sector; just this month, Uganda's energy sector registered a huge leap as partners unveiled the inaugural integration of off/on grid clean energy source in little-known Kiwumu village, Mukono, where communities hitherto had no access to the electricity grid. Story

NATIONAL;

Health, Finance clash over Shs9b tax on Covid-19 pick-up trucks; two weeks ago, the Health ministry procured 282 double cabin pick-up trucks worth Shs23 billion from the donations and requested for a tax waiver amounting to Shs9 billion. The ministry argued that the vehicles were procured using donations. Story

REGIONAL;

Uganda, Tanzania jointly enforcing border COVID-19 directives; Uganda and Tanzania have resolved to jointly handle cross border operations to combat COVID19. They have also tightened restrictions on cross-border movements. Story

COURT;

Court fixes dates to decide on two vehicle tracking cases against govt; the High court in Kampala has fixed dates to decide on two separate filed applications challenging the decision by the government to install surveillance devices in vehicles and other vessels. Story

BUSINESS;

Arcades, Kikuubo to take time before being re-opened; speaking to reporters , Kabanda who was flanked by the Minister of ICT and National Guidance Dr Chris Baryomunsi and the state minister of Kampala Kyofatogabye Kabuye said although President Museveni lifted a ban on arcades and Kikuubo, this will only happen after these places comply with all the Standard Operating Procedures put in place to fight against Covid-19. Story

SPORTS;

Uganda's Chemutai into Wednesday's 3000m Steeplechase final; athlete Peruth Chemutai has booked a slot to the finals of the 3000-metre steeplechase race when she finished second in heat one at the Olympics stadium in Tokyo. Chemutai 22, posted a season-best of 9:12:72 slightly behind Bahrain's Winfred Yavi who won the race in a time of 9:10:80 under the hot temperatures. Story

And finally; Nakaayi, Nanyondo hurting; emotions must have run high in the room shared by Ugandan middle-distance pair of Halimah Nakaayi and Winnie Nanyondo at the Tokyo Olympics' Games Village on Saturday night. Story

Today's scripture; Galatians 6:2

ESKOMorning quote; "Whatever your life's work is, do it well. A man should do his job so well that the living, the dead, and the unborn could do it no better."
By- Martin Luther King, Jr.

Visit our Facebook page; <http://www.facebook.com/EskomUgandaLtd>

Follow Us on Twitter; @Eskomug

Follow the Managing Director/CEO; @Eskom_MD