

25th September 2021

POLITICS;

-MPs want free diabetes and hypertension treatment for Ugandans.

ENERGY NEWS;

-Rwanda appoints members to Atomic Energy board for power plant set up.

NATIONAL;

-Govt takeover of Covid testing at Entebbe starts today.

REGIONAL;

-Sudan PM Abdallah Hamdok put under house arrest.

EDUCATION;

-First Lady wants seminars to teach parents their responsibilities.

HEALTH;

-Kigezi adopts new ways to rid region of malaria.

BUSINESS;

-Ban local eating of Nile Perch.

SPORTS;

-Solskjaer hanging on after Man Utd's historic humiliation.

This review is prepared by the Eskom (U) Ltd Corporate Affairs Office. It is based on articles extracted from Uganda's newspapers. It does not necessarily reflect the opinion of Eskom Uganda Limited."

Prepared by:

The Corporate Affairs Office
Tel: +256-332-240400/401
Fax: +256-332-280306/307
Cell: +256-777-148577
+256-782-079679
+256-704194754

Email:

annitah.nanozi@eskom.co.ug
caroline.amongin@eskom.co.ug
gloria.nabirye@eskom.co.ug
<http://www.eskom.co.ug>

POLITICAL;

MPs want free diabetes and hypertension treatment for Ugandans; legislators have passed a motion urging government to prioritize investment in Non-Communicable Diseases and provide free drugs to Ugandans ailing for them. Kanungu Woman MP, Patience Nkunda, in moving the motion, advocated for provision of free drugs to Ugandans suffering from diabetes and high blood pressure. Story

ENERGY NEWS;

Rwanda appoints members to Atomic Energy board for power plant set up; Rwanda is going ahead with plans to set up a nuclear power plant, which the government says is needed to bridge supply gaps as the country targets middle income status in 14 years. Story

NATIONAL;

Govt takeover of Covid testing at Entebbe starts today; implementation of the mandatory Covid-19 testing for all travellers entering the country through Entebbe International Airport will start today, the government officials who are coordinating the drive said yesterday. Story

REGIONAL;

Sudan PM Abdallah Hamdok put under house arrest; Sudan's Prime Minister Abdallah Hamdok was put under house arrest on Monday after an unidentified military force occupied his house. This is according to Al Haditha TV, a local news network, which cited unidentified sources. Neither the government nor the military have commented on the development. Story

EDUCATION;

First Lady wants seminars to teach parents their responsibilities; the First Lady and Minister of Education, Ms. Janet Museveni, has rallied government to organize parenting seminars aimed at teaching parents their responsibilities to reduce the increasing cases of violence against the children. Story

HEALTH;

Kigezi adopts new ways to rid region of malaria; the use of larviciding method to kill off mosquitoes at larva stage in Kabale, Kisoro and Rubanda districts has reduced malaria cases in Kigezi Sub-region. Story

BUSINESS;

Ban local eating of Nile Perch; fish exporters in the country have defended their call for Parliament to ratify a law banning the local consumption of Nile Perch, a delicacy to many Ugandans. Story

SPORTS;

Solskjaer hanging on after Man Utd's historic humiliation; Ole Gunnar Solskjaer said he has come "too far" as Manchester United manager to give up now, but a 5-0 thrashing at home to Liverpool on Sunday left the Red Devils back where the Norwegian's reign began. Story

And finally; Museveni vows to arrest, defeat 'pigs'; President Yoweri Museveni has vowed to bring to book the perpetrators who planted a bomb that exploded on Saturday and left one person dead and five injured in Komamboga, Kawempe division. Story

Today's scripture; Isaiah 61

ESKOMorningquote; "All good work requires self-revelation." By- Sidney Lumet

Visit our Facebook page; <http://www.facebook.com/EskomUgandaLtd>

Follow Us on Twitter; @Eskomug

Follow the Managing Director/CEO; @Eskom_MD