

30th April 2021

POLITICS:

-MPs tipped on coping with life after Parliament.

ENERGY NEWS:

-Suspension of oil-related activities cost govt Shs21.2b.

NATIONAL:

-House sets strict rules for swearing in of new MPs.

AFRICA:

-At least 20 critically injured in accident at Israel pilgrimage site.

COURT:

-Mufti Mubajje, Supreme Council sued over Sembabule land sale.

HEALTH:

-Uganda confirms Indian strain.

BUSINESS:

-Businessman sues State House Anti-Corruption Unit officer.

SPORTS:

-Bagalana wants more after Ivory Coast Open expedition.

Note. "This press review is prepared by the Eskom (U) Ltd Corporate Affairs Office. It is based on articles extracted from Uganda's newspapers. It does not necessarily +y reflect the opinion of Eskom Uganda Limited."

Prepared by:

The Corporate Affairs Office
Tel: +256-332-240400/401
Fax: +256-332-280306/307
Cell: +256-777-148577
+256-782-079679

Email:

annitah.nanozi@eskom.co.ug
caroline.amongin@eskom.co.ug
gloria.nabirye@eskom.co.ug

<http://www.eskom.co.ug>

POLITICAL;

MPs tipped on coping with life after Parliament; members of Parliament on Thursday received tips on how to cope with life after leaving Parliament. The two-day seminar, which ends today, was organised to guide MPs on how to live a purposeful life after serving their respective stints in Parliament. Story

ENERGY NEWS;

Suspension of oil-related activities cost govt Shs21.2b; suspension and scale down of oil related activities in the 2019/20 financial year cost government Shs21.25b in taxable revenue, according to Accountant General Lawrence Semakula. Story

NATIONAL;

House sets strict rules for swearing in of new MPs; the new Members of Parliament will be expected to follow strict guidelines during the swearing-in ceremony next month. The function will be conducted at Parliament's South Wing parking lot from May 17 to 20. Story

AFRICA;

At least 20 critically injured in accident at Israel pilgrimage site; dozens of people were injured, 20 of them critically, after a grandstand collapsed at a Jewish pilgrimage site in the north of Israel, local rescue services said early Friday. Story

COURT;

Mufti Mubajje, Supreme Council sued over Sembabule land sale; the Leader of Uganda Muslim Supreme Council, Sheikh Shaban Ramadhan Mubajje, has been sued for allegedly selling land without the consent and or consultation of believers. Story

HEALTH;

Uganda confirms Indian strain; Col Dr Henry Kobe, the Covid-19 incident commander, yesterday said the country has now registered five Covid-19 variants, namely Ugandan, Nigerian, South Africa, and UK strains. Story

BUSINESS;

Businessman sues State House Anti-Corruption Unit officer; in a case filed at the Commercial Division of the High Court, Mr. Jamilu Masuba contends that his business, which has been on the contested land since 2006, is being disorganized by a one Nicholas Arinaitwe, who hold a forged landing title and using State House to threaten him with eviction. Story

SPORTS;

Bagalana wants more after Ivory Coast Open expedition; Abbey Bagalana believes he can perform better at more international engagements following his fair success at the recent Ivory Coast Golf Open. Story

And finally; UBC journalist, Robert Kagolo shot dead; police have started investigating the murder by shooting of Robert Kagolo, a UBC journalist which occurred last night at around 8pm at Bugembejembe village, Wakiso District. Story

Today's scripture; Psalms 56:3

ESKOMorning quote; "You cannot change your destination overnight, but you can change your direction overnight." By- Jim Rohn

Visit our Facebook page; <http://www.facebook.com/EskomUgandaLtd>

Follow Us on Twitter; @Eskomug

Follow the Managing Director/CEO; @Eskom_MD