

30th November 2021

POLITICS;

-Nominations for Local Government by-elections start today.

ENERGY NEWS;

-Oil waste policy will address environmental concerns.

NATIONAL;

-Govt dismisses reports that Uganda could 'lose' Entebbe airport to China.

COVID-19 UPDATES;

-Unvaccinated won't be allowed in Kampala next year.

EDUCATION;

Makerere University to tag salary to work attendance

BUSINESS;

-Ugandan farmers urge government to act on Kenya 'eggs war'.

SPORTS;

-Silverbacks dare to dream of World Cup.

This review is prepared by the Eskom (U) Ltd Corporate Affairs Office. It is based on articles extracted from Uganda's newspapers. It does not necessarily reflect the opinion of Eskom Uganda Limited."

Prepared by:

The Corporate Affairs Office
 Tel: +256-332-240400/401
 Fax: +256-332-280306/307
 Cell: +256-777-148577
 +256-782-079679
 +256-704194754

Email:

annitah.nanozi@eskom.co.ug caroline.amongin@eskom.co.ug gloria.nabirye@eskom.co.ug
<http://www.eskom.co.ug>

POLITICAL.

Nominations for Local Government by-elections start today; the nominations of candidates for residual and by-elections in local governments across the country have started. The two-day exercise will start on Monday and end on Tuesday. Paul Bukenya the Spokesperson of the Electoral Commission says that the returning officers are set to nominate the candidates after successfully updating the registers. Story

ENERGY NEWS;

Oil waste policy will address environmental concerns; Museveni acknowledges that oil waste, if not properly handled, has the potential to pollute fragile ecosystems, but adds that concerns about greenhouse emissions from the exploration of oil and gas will not hold if the country clearly deals with the management of wastes from the nascent industry. Story

NATIONAL;

Govt dismisses reports that Uganda could 'lose' Entebbe airport to China; government has dismissed reports that China could take control of the country's only international airport because of a failure to honour a loan agreement. China's embassy in Uganda also dismissed the report. But analysts note the loan deal could become a problem if Uganda ever has trouble paying it back. Story

COVID-19 UPDATES;

Unvaccinated won't be allowed in Kampala next year; only people vaccinated against coronavirus will be allowed access to Kampala city starting January 2022, the state minister for Kampala and Metropolitan Affairs Kabuye Kyofatogabye has warned. Story

EDUCATION;

Makerere University to tag salary to work attendance; Makerere University Appointments Board will tag the salary of staff to the number of days they work. Yusuf Kiranda, the University Secretary says that the policy is aimed at curbing absenteeism of both academic and support staff. Story

BUSINESS;

Ugandan farmers urge government to act on Kenya 'eggs war'; leading Ugandan poultry industry players have urged the government to hold talks aimed at resolving the persistent trade wrangles, the latest being the continued ban on egg imports by Kenya. Story

SPORTS;

Silverbacks dare to dream of World Cup; the national men's basketball team, the Silverbacks, are expected to touch down at Entebbe airport from Angola this morning after completing the first round of the Fiba World Cup qualifiers. Story

And finally; Banks yet to receive Sh200Billion Small Enterprises Rescue Fund; commercial banks and microfinance institutions are yet to officially hear about the 200 billion shillings for lending out money meant to rescue Ugandan small enterprises that were affected by the Covid-19 pandemic which was commissioned early last week. Story

Today's scripture; 2 Chronicles 2:14

ESKOMorningquote; "Happy Tuesday. Stay positive. Saying 'Yes' to happiness. Leaves no room for stress!"

Visit our Facebook page; <http://www.facebook.com/EskomUgandaLtd>

Follow Us on Twitter; @Eskomug

Follow the Managing Director/CEO; @Eskom_MD