

02nd May 2022

POLITICS:

-Uganda's first son Muhoozi promises to unveil political plan 'soon'.

ENERGY NEWS:

-A walk in Albertine Graben oil fields.

NATIONAL:

-BBC unearths racism against Ugandans fleeing Ukraine war.

REGIONAL:

-Museveni proposes regional force to counter Mozambique terrorist threat.

EDUCATION:

-Schools seek gov't permission to increase fees.

HEALTH:

-Medical company to train Ugandan biomedical engineers.

BUSINESS:

-Rising commodity prices are choking us.

SPORTS:

-Busoga Masaza Cup returns.

Note. "This press review is prepared by the Eskom (U) Ltd Corporate Affairs Office. It is based on articles extracted from Uganda's newspapers. It does not necessarily reflect the opinion of Eskom Uganda Limited."

Prepared by:

The Corporate Affairs Office
Tel: +256-332-240400/401
Fax: +256-332-280306/307
Cell: +256-782-079679
Email:
annitah.nanozi@eskom.co.ug
<http://www.eskom.co.ug>

POLITICAL:

Uganda's first son Muhoozi promises to unveil political plan 'soon'; Lt-Gen Muhoozi Kainerugaba, Uganda's first son and commander of the country's land forces, says he will reveal his political programme "soon", in what some see as the strongest signal yet for the 2026 presidential election. Story

ENERGY NEWS:

A walk in Albertine Graben oil fields; the activities at Kingfisher only provide a sneak peek into oil activities, two months after the Final investment decision was signed unlocking a capital investment of $10b in oil related contracts. Story

NATIONAL:

BBC unearths racism against Ugandans fleeing Ukraine war; the BBC Africa Eye team also experienced racism in Poland when they were turned away from two restaurants and confronted by "men angrily demanding to see their BBC IDs. Story

REGIONAL:

Museveni proposes regional force to counter Mozambique terrorist threat; President Yoweri Museveni has hinted at the possibility of deploying a large Ugandan force and troops to deal with the insurgency in the troubled Cabo Delgado region of Mozambique if the security problem is not resolved soon. Story

EDUCATION:

Schools seek gov't permission to increase fees; with only six days left to the official opening of second term, government has said it is receiving requests for fees increment from some private and government aided schools to help cope with the increasing cost of living. Story

HEALTH:

Medical company to train Ugandan biomedical engineers; Dr Safinah Kisu Museene, the Commissioner for Health Education and Training Institutions in the Ministry of Education said that recently started training Biomedical Engineers but admits that they are still very few. Story

BUSINESS:

Rising commodity prices are choking us; Muslim leaders have called on the government to come up with a solution to curb the rising cost of commodities in the country. The leaders made the remarks during Idd ul Fitr prayers on Monday. Story

SPORTS:

Busoga Masaza Cup returns; the annual Busoga Kingdom Masaza Cup returns after two years when it was disrupted by Covid-19 pandemic. The tournament that has attracted all the 11 chiefdoms, will kick off on May 14 with 2016 winners Butembe against Buzaya at St Gonzaga Kagoma in Group A. Story

And finally; Police fire officer over leaked Museveni photo; police have dismissed one of their handful of CCTV security camera network experts, a year after accusing him of leaking a photograph depicting top judicial officers meeting President Museveni shortly before the 2021 General Election petition judgment. Story

Today's scripture; Isaiah 25.8

ESKOMorning quote; "If you have only one smile in you give it to the people you love." By- Maya Angelou

Facebook page; <http://www.facebook.com/EskomUgandaLtd>

Follow Us on Twitter; @Eskomug

Follow the Managing Director/CEO; @Eskom_MD